THIS SUNDAY, JANUARY 25 CONT.

CONFIRMATION CLASS TO START JAN 25 AT 9AM EACH WEEK

Classes will be separately held for Adults and Inquirers, and for Young People (ages 12 / Grade 6 and above). By using the 9am hour we save additional travel and meeting time, and does not compete with the normal Adult Education and young people's programs during the 11:15-12noon Christian Education hour following the Eucharist. Also, because breakfast is served almost every Sunday at 9am (except this week), we can get breakfast and take it to our classroom —worshipping in Body, Mind and Spirit. Children's Class will meet in Room B, Adult's Class in Room C.

Topics will include: "Baptism: Who am I? Whose am I?" / Who is Jesus Christ? / The Holy Bible / The Prayer Book & Hymnal / Sacraments / Christian Belief / The Church / Christian Living / Prayer / The Holy Eucharist / Jesus is Savior / The Christian Year / Your Ministry / St. George's Parish and the Diocese of West Tennessee

An Evening of Fun and Fellowship in the Parish Hall, Saturday, January 31 at 7 pm

⇒ Form a team of up to 6 persons who like to play Trivial Pursuit.

⇒ Contest format will be 10 rounds of 10 questions, compiled by our own resident trivia master and Coventry Choir member Bob Laurie. Assisting him in scorekeeping is everyone's favorite Dilbert-loving engineer and Exultemus! technical guru Don Cook, and coordinating this fun evening is Corporate Knowledge Bowl winner and Music Committee Co-Chair Verlinda Henning.

⇒ Register your team by Friday, January 23 by contacting Verlinda Henning via email to VerlindaH@aol.com, or by signing up on the list which will be in the Parish Hall beginning on Sunday, December 28. Groups in the church (the choir, EFM, Brotherhood of St. George, Vestry, Ushers, etc.) are especially encouraged to form teams for some healthy (and fun!) competition. And by all means, invite your trivia-loving friends to come share in the fun!

⇒ Entry fees are $ 5 per person. In addition to the fun of competition (the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat), we'll have prizes for the top 3 teams, along with door prizes. Refreshments will be available for sale (popcorn, brownies, etc., along with soft drinks/water. Teams can also bring their own beverages and snacks.

⇒ This activity is sponsored by individuals from the Music and EFM programs. All proceeds from both the registration fees and the concessions will benefit our music ministries at St. George's.

2009: "YEAR OF THE BIBLE"

Several ideas have been floating around, and more will emerge, we hope, about how this year's theme, "The Year of the Bible," might take shape. Below are some of those. Please write in to the Rector any ideas you might have in addition.

LECTIONARY FOR THIS, AND EACH, SUNDAY

Beginning with last week, we will be publishing the Lectionary for the coming Sunday in the weekly TIP to assist you in preparing for the Sunday Services. The Lectionary used is the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) version. The link to "Lectionary for this Sunday" is http://www.io.com/~kellywp/YearB\_RCL. It will take you to the monthly calendar of lectionary readings as published below. At the website select the Sunday date and click on RCL which will provide you with the scriptural texts in the New Revised Standard Bible version which we use.

Third Sunday After Epiphany

First Lesson: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Psalm 62:6-14

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

The Holy Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Web link: <http://www.io.com/~kellywp/Year B RCL>

BLESSING OF THE BIBLES: The Bishop conducts a "Blessing of the Bibles" when he visits February 15. (If you do not already have a personal Bible, this may be the year to buy one (from the Bookshoppe : ) ); the Bishop could write a personal note in each Bible.

LOOK UP THE PASSAGE: Every Sunday, those who wish to do so look up one of the Sunday passages, in church, during the reading of that passage. By actually turning the pages, we would become more familiar with the order of the books and be able to find what we need to find.

PASTE IN A FAVORITE PASSAGE: Have a BIG, blank book in the Memorial Room in church where each week parishioners of all ages bring in a passage from holy scripture that is meaningful to him/her and actually paste it in that big book for all to see.

MARK DOWN PASSAGES READ: Have another such book where people can record, with hash/tally marks, the numbers of chapters of the Bible read that week. That weekly total would be transferred to a map of Jesus' journeys by foot in Palestine, the goal being that by the end of the year we would collectively have read a number of chapters proportionate to the number of miles Jesus walked. Rocket scientists have been asked to help us determine how to graph this process.

BIBLE SCAVENGER HUNTS FOR BOTH ADULTS AND YOUNG PEOPLE: When the map above is complete, we journey along Poplar Avenue, or anywhere else along the equivalent route of Jesus' travels, gathering biblical clues about what happened at that place, sending a team to the next place where prizes await.

LECTIONARY CLASS: On Sunday mornings at 9 am, in addition to any other offerings, have a "Lectionary Class," where the scripture passages for the day are reviewed with an eye toward background information — special Greek words used, social customs of the times, etc.— that usually don't show up in a sermon.

And more to come. Do let us know your other good ideas. ~ GKS

MUSIC NOTES

FAREWELL TO GEORGE HUME

The Coventry Choir bids farewell to one of its dearest and long-serving choir members, George Hume. George entered eternal rest Sunday after a long illness, and we will miss him very much. The photo shows George getting ready to blow out his birthday candles at the choir retreat in September 2007, at St. Columba Conference Center. The memorial service will be Sat. January 31, at 11 am. Yes, the choir will be summoned, and it will be augmented by some of George's many friends from around the area. Please keep Jan and their family in your prayers.

PRIZM QUINTET CONCERT

If you missed last Saturday's Friends of Music concert, you missed a real treat. The Prizm Ensemble was at its professional best with a delightful offering of little-heard music. The Franz Berwald piece was especially entertaining - and you wondered what those Scandinavians do in the long, dark winters! Our thanks go to the Friends of Music folks who hosted and funded the program -- Nancy Ligon, Margie Schacht, Don Cook, Glynis Sampson, Dorothy Hamer, Kim Keef, and Laura Williams. Also, thanks go to choir members Ann Jones and Melissa Cook for their help with serving at the reception.

NEXT FRIENDS OF MUSIC CONCERT

Do NOT miss the Memphis Boychoir and Chamber Choir concert, on Friday, February 27, 7:30 p.m.! I'm expecting quite a crowd, so you will need to come early to get a good place to sit. I have heard the Boychoir recently, and have been very impressed with the work of Dr. Geoffrey Ward, the director. The sound from the boys is stunning and brilliant, with surprising power. Dr. Jane Gamble will accompany on the organ

~ Dr. Angela Saunders

NEW ADULT EDUCATION CLASS IN FEBRUARY:

"Hot Topics Making the News"

During the four Sundays of February, we'll talk about the news. Henry Stokes, who spent 42 years as a newspaper reporter and editor, will lead a discussion about specific stories, how they were written, to what purpose, and with what likely result.

Participants are encouraged to bring in articles published in print or on the Web during the previous week—articles that left them uplifted or saddened; informed or confused; committed to action or discouraged.

A short presentation at the beginning of each class will attend to standards for Reporting (Feb 1), Opinion Writing (Feb 8), Cartoons and Graphics (Feb 15); and Data (Feb 22). Plan to join us for this informative class.

"Earthly Mysteries and Divine Judgment" Resumes Feb 1

JEFFREY GROSS, RACONTEUR OF RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE

Jeffrey's Sunday mornings class on "Earthly Mysteries and Divine Judgment" uses video clips from classic British murder mysteries to explore the mysteries of the human heart. Last week Jeffrey showed clips from "Rosemary and Thyme," and "Death in Holy Orders." Both are set in church contexts, and, when written by Christian authors as these are, explore how sin affects all involved, and how God figures in a solution to these "murders most fowl." Much more psychology and spirituality than blood.

ST. GEORGE'S PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

A Bad News - Good News Story

Our pictorial directory project is a bit like a bad horror movie. There is a monster behind every tree! Logan Walker, our project leader, has moved on (see article above). Upon checking with Olan Mills on the status it was discovered they did not receive our last package of information. Everyone who had a photograph taken by Olan Mills last spring is OK. Those photographs are on file with Olan Mills. What was not received were the group photographs (we have copies) and the photographs submitted this fall (we think we have everyone). The office is going through our records in an effort to recreate the missing information.

The good news is that this allows you, yet again, an opportunity to have your photographs made by Olan Mills. Germantown United Methodist is working on a pictorial directory the last two weeks of January. If you call Olan Mills @ 800-596-3731 and tell them you want to have your photograph made there but to appear in our directory, they will schedule an appointment for you. You will need our identification number 29236. Be sure to indicate to the photographer that you are from a different church and given them the 'magic' number 29236.

If you do not wish to have your information listed in our forthcoming directory, you must contact Wendel Stoltz at 754-7282 ext 11 or wstoltz@stgeorgesgermantown.org prior to February 1. ~ Wendel

PARISH NOTES:

STAFF CHANGES

Logan Walker resigned his staff position as Communications Coordinator effective December 31. He had the opportunity to take a full time position with a start-up magazine effort. We wish him well in his new endeavor. Logan will continue as a St. George's member and Grapple teacher. Martha Gardner has accepted an interim and part-time position with bulletin production responsibilities. Martha brings a wealth of liturgical knowledge and knowledge of Episcopal traditions. Kit Decker continues her volunteer service as editor of the TIP and Trish Lange is our able coordinator for our web site. There is not an immediate plan to have a staff person involved with publicity releases to the media. Each ministry team should plan their own press release. Please be sure to coordinate this with Fr. Sturni or Wendel Stoltz in the office.

BUILDING UPDATE

Sound proofing materials have been installed in the Parish Hall and Activity Center. Also to accommodate our ever-growing Sunday School classes, some class and room assignment changes may be made in the next few weeks. Watch the daily bulletin board for details.
